"We are a predominantly African-American multi-ethnic community of Catholic Christians. We seek to be a beacon of hope, a sign of the healing and reconciling presence of Christ to all by being a center of religious education, spiritual development, and social activity that celebrates the ethnic and cultural values of our members and by participating in the communities in which we live and work to address the social needs of our times."

LIVE THE LITURGY

There is an invitation in the empty tomb and the abandoned burial cloths.

What great things could we accomplish, if we only believe that Christ has conquered death? Go forth this Easter season, boldly embracing the hope of the resurrection.

Senior Housing Options

This organization is opening an Adult Day Program for those with dementia in Park Hill! They offer both full-day and half-day programming, where they focus on specialized neuroplasticity programming, engage with participants in meaningful activities, and provide two meals a day.

If you know of anyone who may be looking for support care for their loved one, please see flyer in the back of church or Flocknotes.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Everybody's trying to find God. They may not admit it. They may not even know it. They may talk around it, shy away from saying the name, both to others and to themselves: God. But I know for a fact that every person who was ever born into this world spent their lives searching for Him - somewhere, somehow, even if the only place they thought to look was in money or drugs.

It's a comforting fact, really — a reminder of how alike we all are. Catholic, Jewish, Muslim, atheist, rich, poor, Black, white. When it comes right down to it, the history of humanity is a never-ending Easter morning scene that plays in perpetuity. The sorrow, the shock, the confusion.

Even those who learn about Jesus Christ, who accept his word, hang hesitantly outside the tomb, afraid to go in. Jesus' best friend — the disciple whom he loved — was so desperate to find his Lord. But when he got to the tomb and saw it empty, he got spooked. He froze.

Sometimes, we expect God to be right where we left Him — in a certain parish, with a certain priest, in a certain relationship, at a certain job. We show up, and we're heartbroken to see that our expectations have been turned upside down. He's left us, we think dejectedly, but we're wrong.

There is no one who has been abandoned by God. There are only those who stop looking for Him. Don't let the empty tombs define you. It's the search that defines you.

Team Samaritan

The journey began with a single goal: to change the narrative of homelessness.

They've been pedaling, running and walking their way through some of the most prestigious cycling, running and walking events in Colorado and surrounding states — all to raise funds for Samaritan House, the first building in the nation built specifically to serve people experiencing homelessness, serving women, families and children.

Team Samaritan started with a group of six friends who came together to conquer a Ride the Rockies cycling event in 2011. They were united by their love for physical challenges, their desire to push themselves and the sense of brotherhood that comes from shared experiences.

Thanks to Team Samaritan's dedication, they have reached $2 million raised and have helped countless individuals at Samaritan House access the resources provided by Catholic Charities. Safe housing, nutritious meals, medical care and a chance to make connections along the way.

"...God has blessed us with so many gifts, and we're lucky to be able to share those with others," said Tom Dea.

We had a lovely book discussion April 6. Much gratitude to the Cure D'Ars community members that attended. The discussion was very meaningful. One of the biggest takeaways was that our strength is in our community.

Our next book is: A Different Mirror: A History of Multicultural America by Ronald Takaki

We will meet at the Cure D'Ars Parish Center ; Sat, June 14, 2025; 10:00 A.M. to 12 noon.

Please bring a couple of questions for discussion. We hope to see you there! Best, Tamara Rhone & Veronica Camargo
