

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Many rich people put in large sums. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood." - Mk 12:41c, 43-44

We are all generous, at least to some degree. Most of us when asked for something -- whether it be our time, our talent, or our treasure -- assess whether we can "afford" to fulfill the request and still preserve our own needs. Have we ever given the last bit of what we had knowing that we will have to do without so that someone else can benefit? We all tend to be a little covetous of our time, talent, and treasure. There are people throughout history who have given everything away only to find that they have received much more in return. St. Francis of Assisi is a prime witness. The Scriptures today bring us two widows who do the same. Do we see in people such as this examples of foolishness or wisdom, inspiration, and hope?

The Knights of Peter Claver and the Ladies Auxiliary, Deacon Charles Bright Court and Council 261, celebrate the "Founders Day" of their Nobel Order on November 11, 2018 at the 11:00 am Mass.

The organization was established to provide opportunities for Catholic Action to the entire family. The Knights of Peter Claver Inc. is the oldest and largest African American Fraternal organization with over 17,300 members in six geographical areas. The national initiatives supported by our noble order are "Soaring High" a tutorial program; Social Justice and Human Development; Sickle Cell National Project and Disaster Relief.

Founded in 1909 in Mobile, Alabama, The Knights of Peter Claver are named for Saint Peter Claver, a Jesuit priest.

St. Peter Claver was born in Spain in 1581 and served the poor in Colombia and the West Indies. The objectives of the organization stem from the work of St. Peter Claver. These include promoting civic and social justice, contributing to charity, awarding scholarships, and nurturing relationships with the community, youth, and family. The Knights carry out their mission through several divisions, some of which are the Ladies Auxiliary, the Junior Division, Junior Daughters, the Fourth Degree Knights, and the Fourth Degree Ladies of Grace. The order is now headquartered in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Our community supports the Greater Park Hill Food Pantry. You may donate non-perishable food and personal items. If you would like to receive assistance from the Pantry, it is open Monday and Wednesday from 10 am - 1 pm at 2823 Fairfax. Thank you for your contributions.

IGNATIAN SPIRITUALITY DAY OF PRAYER "To Everything There is a Season"

Join us Saturday, November 17, 9:30 am to 2:30 pm at St. Ignatius Loyola Church 2309 Gaylord Street, Denver. We will explore the changes in our lives through prayer. In addition to presentations, silent prayer and reflection, there will be opportunities for prayerful movement. We will celebrate Mass; lunch is provided. Suggested offering is $50; scholarships are available. To register: pick up a registration form at the church; visit ignatianspiritualitydenver.org/retreats/calendar; contact the Ignatian Spirituality Program of Denver office: 303-320-9995; or by email at ignatianspiritualitydenver@hotmail.com. Deadline to register is November 13th.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP:

What does sacrifice look like? I think of those who serve in the Armed Forces. They have sacrificed much for my freedom and to work towards real peace in our world. I think of those in service to our Church: priests, deacons, and religious. Their lives are dedicated to prayer and good works so that the Good News might not only be preached but be seen in the love they display toward God and their fellow brothers and sisters. I think of parents who stay up long nights with sick children and then one day find themselves staying up even longer as they wait for them to return home. I think of teachers who work hard to educate the next generation of citizens with low salaries and little respect.

I can see sacrifice all around me. I think you can see it, too, if you look. However, I also see too many seeking to get ahead at the expense of others. I see those who have so much and only crave for more. I see those caught up in themselves to the point where families fall apart, friendships disappear, and people literally die from a lack of compassion. I see many who have forgotten where all their gifts in this world came from, if they even knew in the first place.

I think of all those who sacrifice and see all those who do the opposite. May our eyes see more of those who are generous. May we never focus on those who have forsaken others more than those who have given freely to others. May the witness of true sacrifice show us the way to the Father and to a world full of His love. --Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
