The Week Ahead MASS INTENTIONS

Public Masses have resumed under the Covid-19 guidelines by the Archdiocese of Denver.

Sunday, May 24th 11:00 am The Fritz Family

Today marks a special day in the Church as Christ establishes the Church's mission and purpose and calls his disciples, then and now, to the work of accomplishing that mission. And what ultimately is that mission and purpose? To bring all things together in Christ. All that ever was, is, or shall be and all times and seasons find their fulfillment in Christ. To be in Christ is the goal of all creation. All of this begins with baptism and the realization that Christ is present with us, risen and glorified, always. If we approach Christ's fullness with faith, then the eyes of our hearts can be enlightened, and we can begin to see the greater truth of who we are and what creation is meant to be. Christ is really and truly far above all things and the beginning and end of all things. Understanding ourselves in this way really changes up the meaning of life.

Dear Curé d'Ars Community, Regarding Public Mass

In accordance with the guidelines provided by the Archdiocese of Denver, public mass is open to 10 people only. The key to any public mass is the issue of social distancing. Basically, this means that anyone who is involved with the public mass must be at a minimum of six feet apart.

After discussion of the guidelines provided by the Archdiocese of Denver, has led Fr. Joseph and Deacon Clarence to the following decision: there will be one mass offered during this time where only 10 people may attend. We will continue to livestream mass at 11:00 a.m. until either the number of people able to attend exceeds 10 or another option is developed. One of the guidelines is that people who are 65 and older and those with severe underlying medical conditions should stay home.

Anyone wishing to attend the public mass must call the office at 303-322-1119 and have your name put on a list. The first ten will be able to attend and will be notified of such.

We ask for your help in communicating this vital information to all within our community. This will be a great opportunity to also check up on our members to determine if they are okay (not sick, in need of food, need financial assistance, etc.).

Please encourage those who have not provided their contact information to the parish office to please do so by calling 303-322-1119 extension 0. We continue to work to ensure that our community is as accessible as possible to all. Finally, but most important, wear a mask! For the safety of all.

—God Bless, Fr. Joseph Cao and Deacon Clarence
